Welcoming Message

Dear International Students!

It is our pleasure to welcome you to the International English and Professional Programs at UC Davis Extension on the campus of the University of California, Davis. Our programs present a number of opportunities to connect you to this top-ranked research university, through enrollment in courses that provide quality learning in a supportive environment. We continually respond to our clients' needs and have developed new programs for science and engineering students, as well as pre-service and in-service teachers. Our English language programs will help you become a more fluent and effective communicator in English and will expand your awareness and understanding of American culture. Students planning further study in the U.S. will be well prepared for success with our demanding advanced work in academic language and preparation programs.

International English and Professional Programs is a member of the following professional organizations: University and College Intensive English Programs (UCIEP), Association of International Educators (NAFSA), American Association of Intensive English Programs (AAIEP) and the University of California Consortium of English Language and Professional Training Programs.

The IEPP has several sister units within the Center for International Programs, notably the International Law Programs and the Global Study Program, which provide innovative courses for lawyers, legal professionals, judges and institutional partners, respectively.

We hope you will take full advantage of the educational excellence available to you through our International Programs at UC Davis. Please browse our website for the most up-to-date information on all of our programs. The University of California, Davis, is one of the most distinguished universities in the United States.

We look forward to meeting you!

Beth Greenwood, J.D.
Chair, Center for International Programs

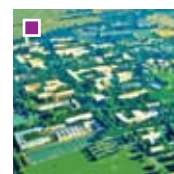

Janis Williamson, Ph.D.
Director, International English and Professional Programs

"Come join the fun of learning and experience all that California has to offer."
~ Janis

"We look forward to providing you with the educational experience of a lifetime."
~ Beth

THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, DAVIS (UC Davis) has more than 30,000 students and stretches over 2,000 hectares. A comprehensive university with more than 100 majors, UC Davis consists of schools, colleges and divisions of Letters and Science, Engineering, Agriculture and Environmental Sciences, Biological Sciences, Law, Management, Medicine and Veterinary Medicine. Ranked as one of the top 10 public research institutions in the country, UC Davis supports numerous laboratories and off-site facilities throughout the state. Its faculty is recognized worldwide for distinguished scholarly and scientific achievements.

Students come from all over the United States and from countries throughout the world to attend UC Davis. The academic year consists of three 11-week quarters. The fall quarter runs from late September to mid December; the winter quarter from early January to mid March; and the spring quarter from late March to mid June. In addition to its academic and research activities, the university boasts an excellent collection of sports facilities and a wide variety of student organizations and clubs creating an active and engaging student life. In fact, UC Davis has been ranked 14 out of 660 colleges in the country for fostering a healthy, "fit" lifestyle.

With a strong commitment to fostering lifelong learning, UC Davis Extension is the professional and continuing education provider for the University of California, Davis. The International English and Professional Programs (IEPP) offers a growing number of programs for international participants. UC Davis Extension also draws international participants to many of its more unique public courses, such as law, agriculture, information technology, business management, viticulture and brewing—in traditional classroom and online learning formats. Extension instructors are UC Davis faculty members and other professionals who are recognized for their expertise and contributions in their respective fields.
