Leadership and Business Training for Your Employees

Summer 2018
Learn to adapt and thrive in the face of change.

Gain practical techniques and strategies you can apply immediately.

The 2018 UC Davis Executive Leadership Program will meet every other Thursday afternoon and all day Friday, October 4-November 15 at the Sutter Square Galleria in Sacramento.

Interactive Sessions
Take part in eight expert-led sessions that will expand your ability to confidently guide your organization.

360° Assessment
Gain self-awareness through meaningful, confidential feedback, which is essential to developing your capacity to lead.

Coaching
Participate in two coaching sessions to help focus your development for the greatest impact.

Exceptional Value
Tuition for the 2018 Executive Leadership Program is $5,950 ($5,650 if registration and payment occur prior to August 30). This program is an extraordinary value that includes exceptional faculty and the opportunity to network with leaders from Northern California’s top organizations.

Enrollment deadline is September 17. Program usually fills before this date.

“The UC Davis Executive Leadership Program provides a rare opportunity for leaders to invest in themselves, to learn about their unique strengths and talents, and apply them in more strategic, intentional ways. It is unique in bringing together leaders from different sectors, which leads to richer discussions and more creative thinking about leadership challenges.”

Coaching is more than a job. It’s a profession that allows you to impact the lives of others by helping them identify and eliminate barriers to their success.

Examine and apply core coaching competencies in your daily interactions through our International Coach Federation-accredited coach training program. This five-month program is offered twice per year.

“In my class, Coaching Conversations, which is part of the Coaching for Life and Work Certificate Program, my students and I discuss insights about the brain that have helped shape brain-based coaching as a new approach to thinking, learning, developing and creating lasting change. These insights help create long-lasting benefits for clients, including improved sense of focus, greater self-awareness and responsibility, increased confidence and more.”
